

invitation

Opportunities for Young Lawyers and Law Students to work in International Law

Allens Arthur Robinson is proud to host this seminar on behalf of the International Law Association (Australian Branch) and the Australian Institute for International Affairs. A panel of speakers will discuss and answer questions about their experiences as young lawyers working in international law.

Panel members:

Tom Levi, Law Graduate, Allens Arthur Robinson; former intern at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the Permanent Court of Arbitration, the Netherlands.

Katie Price, Lawyer, Gilbert + Tobin; 2009 Peter Nygh Hague Conference Intern.

Sophie Ryan, CEO Sony Foundation; former International Consultant for the United Nations working in Vienna and Sudan.

Information about the 2011 Peter Nygh Hague Conference Internship will be available at the seminar and can also be found at: <http://www.aiia.asn.au/get-involved/nygh-internship> date Monday 22 November 2010

time 5.45pm – registration 6pm – seminar commences
7pm – seminar concludes, followed by drinks and canapés

venue Allens Arthur Robinson Level 28
Deutsche Bank Place
Corner of Hunter and Phillip Streets, Sydney

rsvp Friday, 12 November 2010 to Katie Lokker on 9230 4243
or email Katie.Lokker@aar.com.au

