

The TC Beirne School of Law invites you to the launch of

“Human Rights Related Trade Measures under International Law”

By Dr Anthony E Cassimatis

To be launched by
Her Excellency the Governor of Queensland
Ms Quentin Bryce, AC

The book, published by Martinus Nijhoff, addresses the legality of trade measures imposed to improve respect for human rights in other countries. Such controversial measures were given prominence when the US linked trade with China to China’s human rights record. Following Her Excellency’s address and launch of the book, Dr Cassimatis will speak briefly on legal issues raised by such trade measures.

Date: Monday, 17 March 2008

Location: Banco Court, Level 2 Supreme Court, George Street, Brisbane

Time: 6.00pm followed by light refreshments in the Rare Books Precinct

RSVP: Thursday, 13 March to Emma Young, TC Beirne School of Law.
Telephone 07 3346 9350 or email e.young@law.uq.edu.au

About the publisher: Martinus Nijhoff has been publishing specialist monographs in the field of public international law since the 19th Century. It is also the publisher of the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law.

The launch is being held in association with the Centre for Public, International and Comparative Law within the TC Beirne School of Law and the Queensland Chapter of the International Law Association.